Antioch Lumber Yard Burglarized Sunday; State Line Sta. Sat.

Burglars broke into the Antioch Lumber and Coal Co., Sunday night and after smashing the combination of the safe obtained $30 in small change.

The thieves ransacked company papers contained in the cabinet-type safe, but took only the money. They looted a tool house of the Soo line nearby in getting tools by which they pried open a window on the east side of the building, using a four-foot ladder to get to it.

They used the same tools in breaking open the safe-cabinet and then upon leaving scattered the tools about the ground.

It is believed that they are not the same ones who burglarized the State Line Service Station of Mrs. Charles Alvers, north of the village and took $175 in cash. That burglary occurred Saturday night.

Scout Home Drive Nets $900 to Date

Approximately $900 has been received in the drive to provide much-needed funds for the Antioch Scout home to date, and it is expected that a great deal more will be received before the end of the drive.

About $1900 is needed to maintain the home each year to cover the cost of heat, light and general maintenance. Although no great amount has been received, Mrs. W. C. Petty, secretary of the board, said today that a steady flow of checks was being received, and that she felt that sufficient money would be contributed.

Donors who have contributed this week include:

Mrs. Drucilla Ferris, Mr. M. M. Stillson, Deedie and Mary Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wertz, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baethke, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, Chuck Smith, Mr. Edw. Gressens, Mrs. H. H. Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Krueger, Mrs. Theresa Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Elms.

Moose Lodge Plans Club Room with Bar in Elms Building on Main Street

A step toward providing a club room for the new Moose lodge in Antioch was taken when a representative of the lodge appeared before the village board Tuesday evening and received an assurance that the lodge would receive a club liquor license if it qualified for one.

The lodge is contemplating the use of the Elms building now occupied by the R. and J. Chevrolet garage as a storage place for new cars, at the rear of the liquor store.

The club will be under the control of the national headquarters at Mooseheart which rules that liquor can only be sold after 4 p. m. and before midnight. It can be sold only to members and the village board will be supplied a list of members. The approval of the village must be obtained before the lodge will permit the club.

Three Building Permits Issued by Village Board

Permits for two business building additions and a residence were issued Tuesday evening by the village board.

The Golden Glo dairy was given a permit to construct a garage 65x46 of cement blocks south of its dairy building at a cost of $7,000. It will be separate from the dairy. Floyd Horton has the contract for building a 12x30 foot addition to the Reeves Body Shop on Depot st. at a cost of $5,500.

John Blackman was authorized to build a six-room house of cement blocks at a cost of $7,000. He is doing most of his own work even to the making of the blocks.

Say Children Endangered

Complaint was made before the village board Tuesday evening that the Milling Company on Main st. is blocking the sidewalk and street with its truck forcing children to endanger their lives as they go to and from the grade school in having to go into the street to go around. The Milling Company has been an object of this complaint before and it is expected that the matter will be taken care of without difficulty, all to the safety of the children.

The two-piano recital of Karl Wiechmann and his pupils held Sunday, Oct. 2, at the Grass Lake school was attended by 200 persons. Mr. Wiechmann played one piano and his students the other.

Parking Meters Net Village Nearly $900 in September

The village isn't doing so badly with its parking meters.

The report of the village treasurer Tuesday evening informed the village board that $899.90 was received during September from the parking meters. The expense for repairs was $7.75.

The parking meter fund now has $4,965.31 which can be used only for police matters.

A total of 148 parking violation tickets were issued during the month or about five a day.

Rescue Squad Gives Aid in 2 Accidents, Playground and Auto

The Antioch Rescue squad was called twice yesterday to aid the injured.

The first call was at 1:30 a. m., three miles north of the state line on Rte. 41, where a stolen car in the possession of two sailors collided with a car driven by Joseph Gagliardo, 22, star halfback of the Waukegan Merchants baseball team.

Gagliardo was unhurt, but one of the sailors, Charles K. Otis, 18, of Rochester, N. Y. is in Kenosha hospital with a skull fracture and internal injuries and his companion, William E. Kine, 18, of Philadelphia, received multiple bruises. The collision was just like any other line play to Gagliardo.

The accident occurred when the sailors cut out of their lane in going around a truck. Otis was charged with taking a car without the owner's permission. It belonged to Harold Flash, operator of a cheese market at Rtes. 41 and 50.

The second call of the Rescue squad was to the Grass Lake school where Louis Kempf, Jr., of Petite lake was cut on the head when a playground swing struck him. He was taken to a physician who closed the wound with three stitches.

Chicago Youths Break Into Long Lake Cottage, Steal Supplies, Caught

Woodstock—Richard Carlson, 14, of 5642 Belle Plaine avenue, Chicago, and Dan Lighten, 13, of 4056 Marmon avenue, Chicago, were arrested last Thursday by McHenry police and brought here to the jail on a charge of larceny.

The two Chicago youths told a story to Sheriff Fred Bau of how they hitchhiked rides from Chicago to Long Lake, in Lake county, where they broke into the cottage of P. J. Birchhoff and took a supply of canned goods, coffee, sugar and flour blankets. They then stole a canoe from the cottage and proceeded on the Fox River to Johnsburg where they stopped to get warm. They then continued to the dam at McHenry where they carried the canoe over the dam. About 1,000 feet past the dam they stopped and pulled ashore.

Steal More Stuff
The teenagers then told Sheriff Bau they broke into the J. J. Hughes ridge snack bar and took two cartons of cigarettes, two cases of pop, box of cigars, candy, gum.

On Wednesday night they slept some 50 feet from the Hughes place and yesterday when they got up they started a fire and cooked breakfast. They then got in the canoe and were about to shove off when Hughes told them to come back and put out the fire. It was about this time he noticed his place was broken into and he held the lads and called McHenry police who came and arrested them.

—Woodstock Sentinel
The boys were turned over to Lake County authorities for questioning.

Fete 25-Year-Employees

Employees of the Wilbur Lumber Co. at Silver Lake and Grayslake yards were dined by the company at the Villa Bianco near Round Lake Park last evening and special honor paid to those serving 25 years. Everette Hook, manager and John Olsen of the Grayslake yards and Ralph Barber, manager of the Silver Lake yards were thus honored. Hawley Wilbur who will retire as head of the firm next year and his two sons, George H. and Richard, who will succeed him were present.

Husband Seeks Divorce

Harold M. White, Antioch farmer, has filed suit for divorce in circuit court of Lake county against his wife, Ruth M. White, charging desertion and cruelty. She is said to be a resident of Highland Park, the complaint stating that she went there to reside after going to California. They were married Oct. 4, 1944 and have no children.

Moose Lodge to Stage Big Parade, Initiation Sunday

Eight Lodges in District 3 Will Meet Here in Open Air Ceremony

Antioch citizens will witness one of the longest parades of the year here Sunday afternoon when Dist. 3, Loyal Order of Moose stages its district initiation and celebration.

Nearly 200 candidates for initiation will be in the line of march and will afterwards be inducted in an open air service at the high school athletic field.

The parade will include besides the candidates the famous Red Jacket drum and bugle corps from North Chicago, the Waukegan drum and bugle corps, and the Zion Junior band.

A marching unit of 60 children from Greater Lodge No. 3, Chicago, will take part and there will be several floats and perhaps Antioch organizations, such as the scout troops and others in the line. Bill Horton will be marshal.

The assembly will be at the Antioch grade school at 12:15 p. m. and the parade will start at 1 o'clock. The line of march will be south on Main st. to the high school where the initiation services will take place at 2 p. m.

Eight Lodges Represented
Represented at the meeting both with candidates and members will be the district's eight lodges. They are Antioch No. 525, North Chicago, No. 1235; Waukegan 706, Highland Park, 446, Zion-Benton 667, Crystal Lake 1188, Harvard, 1289 and Woodstock 1329.

Frank Dolenz, district vice president, will be in charge of the meeting which will be attended by such dignitaries as Otto Meyer, regional organizer, and George W. Theise, secretary.

Lake County officials who are members of the organization will be in attendance.

Drill Units to Perform
After the mass initiation, the drum and bugle teams and other drill units will give a public performance.

An aerial picture will be taken of the event by one of the local initiators.

A get-acquainted party will take place afterward at the American Legion hall and the hall will be open to dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock that evening.

Village Officials To Go To League Convention

Six of the village officials will attend the state meeting of the Illinois Municipal League at Springfield next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Those who will make the trip are Acting Mayor Murrill Cunningham, Trustees Edgar Simonson, James Maplethorpe, Arthur Rosenfeldt, Village Attorney E. C. Jacobs and Supl. Walter I. Scott.

The board voted each of the six $50 expense money.

Reception for Sisters Successful

The reception and kitchen shower for the sisters in charge of St. Peter's school was largely attended Sunday, Sept. 24 and a large amount of canned goods was presented to them.

The teachers have a big task ahead of them this year for they have at present 213 pupils.

City Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Simonson returned recently from a two week's vacation trip to Spencer, Iowa, where they were guests of Arnold Miller. They also traveled through Missouri to Oklahoma where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and family, on their return they visited friends in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. E. J. Hays attended a tea, given in the honor of Patricia Clafford, author of "Even The Wind," at the Sheraton hotel, 505 North Michigan Ave., Chicago Wednesday.

'FLAMEPROOF YOUR FUTURE'

Village Will Bill Dairy Firm for $3,140 Back Debt on Sewer Serv.

When the deadline was reached Tuesday for the Willow-Dale Dairy Co., to appear and show cause why it should not be billed for sewer services, the village board ordered the clerk to present a bill of $3,140 dating back to Feb. 1, 1948.

The Chicago firm of Shafer, Selig, Mandel and Shapiro of Chicago asked that action be delayed a few days until it could appear, but the board considered that its month's notice was sufficient and that 20 months was long enough to wait for the money.

The dairy firm is being billed at $157 a month which is the minimum on the basis of the bacterial count.

Clinton O. Thompson New Lawyer in This Village; Can Practice in Wisconsin

Mr. Thompson has engaged in the active practice of all branches of the law for many years with offices on LaSalle st., in Chicago.

Before coming to Antioch Mr. Thompson and his wife Ethel E. lived in Highland Park. He is a World War I veteran having served on a mine sweeper. He closed his Chicago office to join the U. S. Maritime commission in 1945 and was released in September 1948.

Antioch Future Farmers Place First and Second In Judging Contest Ties

Antioch Future Farmers placed first and second at the sectional Grain and Poultry Judging contest held at Marengo, Illinois last Tuesday. Fifteen schools of the north-eastern division of Illinois competed.

The Antioch team placed first in grain and second in poultry. The grain team compiled a total score of 2150 points from a total possible score of 2400. Wauconda was second with 2140 points. There were two Antioch boys who placed in the ten high individual rating. Donald Schultz was second high individual with 744 points and Robert Seekatz was sixth with 729 points. The other members on the team were Richard Raether, Richard Walberg, and William Poulsen.

The poultry team was 210 points below the first place, Harvard team. The boys of the poultry team got a total score of 2041. Gordon Wells, with a total score of 705, was eighth high individual. The other boys, who were on the poultry team are Albert Berkiel, Jack Choje, George Nelson and Forrest Bolton.

The three boys from each team with the highest score will get to go to the State Judging Contest at Urbana, Illinois next June.

Mr. and Mrs. George Good left this week for a vacation and visit with their son in Ohio.

Bensenville to Play Here Tomorrow Nite-Antioch Lost to Northbrook 19-0

Antioch High will have its third tough football assignment tomorrow evening when it meets Bensenville here under the lights starting at 7:30.

Bensenville was beaten by Northbrook 7, to 0 earlier in the season and Antioch lost its second game this year by a 19 to 0 score to Northbrook there last Friday evening.

The Sequoias made three serious mistakes and Northbrook capitalized on all. In the first quarter an Antioch player dropped a punt which the opposition recovered and set the stage for a score. On intercepted Antioch pass gave the Northbrook team its second touchdown.

There was no more scoring until the last few minutes of play when an Antioch secondary man was drawn out of position and Northbrook completed a pass with no interference.

The yardage for the two teams was the same.

Wauconda will play here the following week instead of at Wauconda as was first planned through mutual agreement.

The Antioch team should be strengthened this week through the return of both Appanaitis and Poulos to the game. Appanaitis had an injury and Poulos was ill, neither one playing in the Northbrook game.

Mooseheart, the City of Children, Dramatized in Pictures to be Shown Here

The inspiring story of Mooseheart, the city of children, will be told to Antioch audience through the John Nesbitt passing parade short subject by M-G-M at the Lakes theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of the coming week.

Under the title "City of Children" the home for orphans of Moose lodge members at Mooseheart, Ill., will be shown in detail.

Started 37 years ago by the fraternal society, the home for orphans became more than just cold charity. Homes were built instead of dormitories, and the children wear bright clothes instead of uniforms and know freedom as well as discipline.

Mooseheart at first glance seems much like any other small city with its community center schools, parks, playgrounds, bank, department stores and factories. It has wide streets, trees, neat and prosperous looking homes. But most of its inhabitants are very young. They are the orphans for whom the Loyal Order of Moose cares for so splendidly.

Slot Machines Out Again

Slot machines were removed this week from taverns and stores in Antioch as well as other parts of North and western Lake county. While the protest of a group of ministers recently may have had the effect of preventing them being operated throughout the winter, the main reason was said to be that the season for vacation visitors is over and their money and entertainment was desired rather than that of home trade.

Pay Respects to Dan Boyer

Nearly 500 persons paid their respects last week to Daniel S. Boyer of Lake Villa whose funeral was held here last Friday. Dean Howard E. Ganster officiated at the last rites for the Johns-Manville mid-west sales representative. Burial was in Angola cemetery, Lake Villa.

Step Taken to Provide Election to Name New President of Village

Special Board Meeting Oct. 13 To Approve Water-Sewer Improvements

An election to provide a mayor to succeed the late George B. Bartlett will be arranged just as soon as the exact legal procedure is ascertained.

Members of the village board Tuesday evening instructed Village Attorney E. C. Jacobs to prepare an ordinance calling for a special election on a date yet to be decided.

While it is known that the election must come within six months after the vacancy (or at the next general election) and that 60 days must lapse from the time the ordinance is passed until the election date, Attorney Jacobs said the statutes are not clear as to the time of publication of notice and this he expects to learn next week from the attorney for the Illinois Municipal league.

Acting President Murrill Cunningham told the board that all he desired in his present position is 30 days as a courtesy period.

Cunningham told the board that the village's outstanding need now is improved streets and sidewalks and said that Orchard st. will have to be placed in good condition by the village.

The board members, while setting Thursday, Oct. 13, as the day in which subscribers to the sewer and water improvements on Orchard and Hillside sts., may appear in final settlement for the contract, learned that the contract, as finally amended by the engineer, eliminated the provision that the contractor put the street back in as good a condition as he found it. The improvement is going to cost the village something, Walter I. Scott, utilities superintendent said.

Tests are to be made on the sewer and water mains the last of this week.

American Legion Plans Events for this Month; Movie Tonight on Fish

Motion pictures of fish and bird life will be shown this (Thursday) evening at the regular meeting of the Antioch American Legion by the Illinois Conservation department.

The show, lasting an hour and a half, will start promptly at 8 o'clock. John L. Horan, adjutant, announced that the basement club has been abandoned and the bar hereafter will be operated by a committee responsible for seeing that all regulations are observed.

The post will have as its guests at the Oct. 20 meeting the 40 and 8 degree team for the initiation of new Legion members. On Oct. 29 the post will have a Halloween party. The Auxiliary unit will run a series of card parties starting Oct. 15, with prizes each night and a grand prize at the end of the series.

Berwyn Woman Injured In Fall at Rock Lake

Mrs. William Dietz, of Berwyn, Ill., suffered a fracture of her upper left leg Sunday evening while visiting relatives at Rock Lake, Wis. She tripped while walking across the lawn and fell.

She was taken to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan by the Antioch Rescue squad and the fracture reduced by Dr. Irving Breakstone of this village.

Complaints on Parking Ticket

Peter James McGuigan of 3042 Liversey ave., Chicago, has written to the Antioch News protesting the fact that he was given a parking ticket the night of Saturday, Sept. 17. He recites the many miles he has driven, and said it was his first ticket. He maintained he paid for two hours of parking and was not credited that long by the meter. One matter about which he complained was the lack of notice of the time of parking, but he evidently didn't see the instructions on the meter. He charged that other cars were not ticketed and believes he was singled out because he had a Chicago sticker on the car.

Not by Bread Alone

Each year, during the third week in October, National Bible Week is observed. The 1949 observance will run from the 17th to the 23rd.

The week is designed to again focus attention on those basic principles of Christianity which much of the civilized world is supposed to live by—and which are so widely and tragically violated. Here in the United States, to say nothing of other nations, we have little to pride ourselves upon as Christians. We have the highest rate of crime and delinquency in our history—three times as many people are incarcerated in penal institutions as are attending universities and colleges. Eleven out of 12 young people are not active church members. Over 8,000,000 people are under treatment for mental disorders. Religions and morals are often openly ridiculed, and totalitarian principles, which are directly opposed to Christianity and all the other great religions as well, are advocated and taught. There has never been a time when so much cheap and tawdry entertainment—in books and magazines, and on the radio, stage and screen—was offered for sale, and it has a huge audience. Racial and class hatreds are rampant.

Looking at the international scene, it is clear that the failure to live up to the basic ideals of Christianity has led to misery and despair for millions, to the enslavement of once-free peoples, to a cold war which is absorbing more and more of our energies, our thoughts, our resources. The world is moving swiftly toward a cynical materialism which may destroy it unless the trend is checked.

At a time like this, National Bible Week has a vast significance. In the great old phrase, "Man cannot live by bread alone."

One Cigarette

On a recent week-end we had new and terrible proof that a cigarette, harmless as it may appear, can be a lethal weapon.

The fire which destroyed a pleasure cruise ship at a Toronto dock, with a ghastly toll of death and injury, is believed to have started from a carelessly dropped cigarette. The following day a commercial plant burned in California, and the property loss was very heavy. Again, according to the authorities, a cigarette was the probable cause.

Does it seem incredible that so small a thing as the fire at the end of a cigarette can be responsible for major disasters? In the case of the passenger vessel, one entire section of the craft, containing state-rooms, was flaming within three minutes after the fire was noticed. Within fifteen minutes the entire ship was ablaze. Under certain conditions fire travels with unbelievable rapidity. Its victims are trapped without hope of escape. The horrible hotel fires of last year and the year before provide other illustrations of this. And in the worst of those fires a cigarette also set off the holocaust.

The careless, thoughtless smoker can be as dangerous as a maniac with a bomb. He is a threat to lives, property, and irreplaceable natural resources such as forests and wildlife. Every person who smokes must be made to realize the obligation he owes to society to take care.

The Electric Age

October 21st will mark the 70th anniversary of Edison's invention of the incandescent lamp—the discovery which made possible the creation of the electric industry, and which has touched, in one way or another, the life of almost everyone.

The story of that industry is a testimonial to the spirit, the courage, and the will to achieve of free men working under a free enterprise system in a free nation. When the lamp was first shown, the vast majority of people regarded it as an amusing novelty and little more. Most doubted if it would ever lead to anything important. Few were willing to put up money to get the industry going.

On this 70th anniversary, by contrast, we find ourselves in the electric age. The power industry is engaged in a multi-billion dollar expansion program which is the largest in its history. Practically every American home has electric lights, radios, refrigerators, and a long list of other items which are operated by the invisible "juice" that comes out of a wall plug. Soon almost all American farms will either be using central station power, or will have it available. And, in industry, dependable power service is as vital as is the blood stream to a living being.

Our leadership in electrification is unquestioned. American power production in the year which ended this September was more than the entire world production in 1929. We generate five times as much electricity as the next ranking nation—Russia.

Free enterprise did all this—not government, not dictators. It gives us the finest electric service on earth for about a third as much as we spend on tobacco. The record speaks for itself—and it is just beginning.

WILMOT

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Phyllis Elverman, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Elverman of Wilmot and Edward Tichy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tichy, of Barrington, which took place on Friday, Sept. 9, in Chicago. The newlyweds are making their home at 215 North Hough St., Barrington, Ill.

WILMOT HIGH SCHOOL WINS AT EAST TROY

Wilmot High school's compact streamlined football squad put a chapter of revenge into the books in the East Troy rivalry feuds, winning a 26-7 decision there Friday afternoon to vault into undisputed control of southeastern Wisconsin conference leadership. Coach Frank Bucci's boys put out a satisfying performance all the way. They counted early and kept the pressure on the Troy team which failed to score until the final quarter when Wilmot had the issue iced. In the first quarter, quarterback Earl Hennessey intercepted a pass and scooted 50 yards for a touchdown. Two Wilmot markers were harvested in the second quarter. Hennessey uncovered an aerial to Capt. Watson Hubbard, who traveled 25 yards for a score. He converted on the first two kicks. Hennessey lateraled to Phil Brehm, who streaked 35 yards for pay territory, but Hubbard's kick missed. The half ended, 20-0 for Wilmot. After a scoreless third quarter, East Troy hit the counting column in the fourth frame. Riek passed to Metzke who raced 23 yards to avert a whitewash. The same combination clicked for the extra point. Wilmot then took the kickoff and advanced right down the field while East Troy was helpless to stem the attack. The march ended when Wally Skora went over from the four yard stripe. First downs Wilmot stacked up 13 while holding East Troy to 6. They will play Waterford Friday evening and it will be the annual homecoming. Watson

Competitor Denounces Suit Against A&P

THE BOLD three-column advertisement in the current issue of the Waynesboro True Citizen catches the reader's eye. We quote it in full.

To our notion that advertisement by C. Whit Blount states the economic and governmental aspects of the case against A&P with a clarity and forcefulness that most of the editorial comment has lacked.

Also it strikes us as a fine example of sportsmanship in business.

Incidentally, it is about as effective an advertisement as could have been written for Mr. Blount's "Grocery".

Makes you sort of wish you were in Waynesboro to trade with him, doesn't it?

A Word For Our Competitor The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

There has been a move by the anti-trust department of the Federal Government to destroy our leading competitor, the A&P Food Store.

It may seem odd, but we are opposed to this move.

The A&P Co., is definitely our strongest competitor - they keep us hopping. But, we are still in business - And Expanding. We do it by selling quality merchandise, buying at a close margin and selling at CLOSER margin.

The so called "trust-busters" charge that the A&P Co. control some of the production and processing ends of the food business. As a result, they hold the cost price down on foods.

WELL, WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS??

If A&P holds the costs down, it makes our suppliers hold their costs down to the same competitive level. They can sell cheaper, AND SO CAN WE.

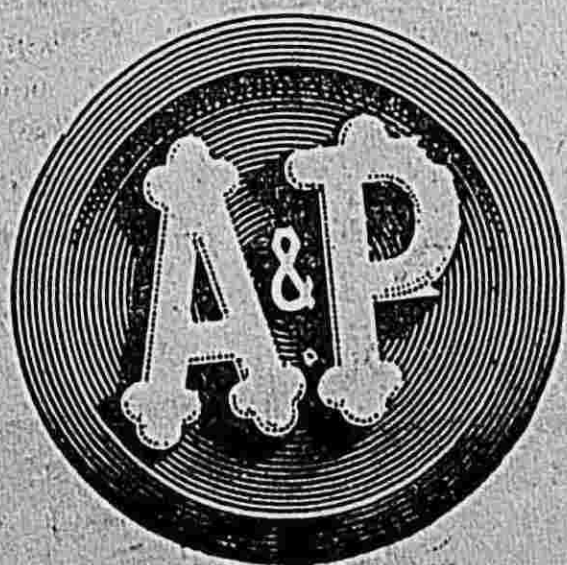

We intend to continue to try to sell better merchandise than A&P; We also will continue to have competitive prices.

BUT, We don't believe the government, or any individual should try to break up a firm that is doing a good, clean, efficient job of serving the people of this country.

Denman-Bauman Marriage Solemnized at Millburn

The Millburn Congregational church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Saturday afternoon when Miss Alice C. Denman became the bride of Milton K. Bauman, the Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiating. Alice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Denman, of Millburn and Milton is the son of Mrs. Anna Bauman, also of Millburn.

The bride's father gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony at the altar decorated by white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and fern. She wore a charmingly redingote over a satin formal. The simple, elegant formal was detailed with a fitted bodice and a gracefully bouffant skirt. Pointed collar and points at the wrists highlighted the buttoned-down-front of the redingote and the gathered skirt swept into a full and flowing train. She carried a bouquet of beautiful white gladioli.

Mrs. Margaret DeYoung, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Mildred Bonner, twin sister of the groom, and Mrs. Carol Denman, sister-in-law of the bride, were bridesmaids. The bride's attendants wore taffeta dresses in a rich shade of cedar green. Their gowns were styled with sheer yokes, gathered berthes and a cascaded bustle extending down the back of the skirts from hip to hem-line. They carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. John Thain attended the groom as bestman. William Bauman and Robert Denman were ushers.

Hans Von Holwede officiated at the Hammond electric organ. Frank DeYoung sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception for the newlyweds was held in the church dining room immediately following the ceremony with Mrs. Betty Hill of Waukegan, and Mrs. Doris Doolittle of Antioch pouring. Mrs. Grace Kane, sister of the bride, served the five tier wedding cake.

After a two week honeymoon the young couple will be at home at the Bauman farm, two miles south of Millburn.

Chapman lived for three years deep in the Malay jungle as an irregular fighter behind the Japanese lines. He harassed the Japanese trained Chinese guerrillas, and was captured twice, escaping both times to continue his jungle warfare.

Col. Chapman has written of his experiences in "The Jungle is Neutral" with a soldier's directness and the keen observation of the naturalist.

"The Jungle is Neutral" was presented to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Elvin Keulman.

SCIENCE ADVANCES

Electronic Brain Works

WASHINGTON.—A new electronic brain, bigger than an upright piano and looking like a panel of gymnasium lockers, has started thinking big thoughts.

It will think—or remember—for the agriculture department, and hence will cogitate over everything from the Hessian fly to the care and feeding of a goat.

Reporters got their first look at the contraption at a special news conference.

Ralph R. Shaw, librarian, said its real name was microfilm rapid selector; that Dr. Vannevar Bush (who also worked on the atom bomb) first thought it up, and that this is the first such machine ever built.

Photographs Books

Scientific books, pamphlets, index cards, and so on will be photographed on microfilm.

Then when some scholar wants to know all the available information on, say, the Plymouth Rock pullet, the film will start purring through this machine; 360 feet to the minute. Each page on the film is no bigger than your thumbnail, yet even at that speed the machine will find pullet news and photograph it.

"It works on the same principle as the electronic door," Shaw said, "only more sophisticated."

"The door opens because you have broken a beam of light. Here the same thing is done. Everything is indexed in code numbers, represented by dots. The dots have to correspond exactly for the picture to be taken."

Perfect Selection

"In effect, this opens the door, too. But out of 10 million people, it only opens the door for the right one."

Shaw thinks the machine not only will save a lot of space now used for files, but also will enable scientists to take on more difficult research jobs.

John E. Parker, president of the engineering research associates of St. Paul, the company that built the brain, was on hand.

He said the government put up $56,000 for research on such a gadget, but that that had run out and the company had put in another $50,000.

Parker thinks medium-sized companies, as well as complex government departments, eventually will have such machines.

22 'Old Maids' Celebrate Fact They Never Married

NORRISTOWN, PA.—Some 22 women who never have said "I do" went out and celebrated the fact they're old maids.

The women, spinsters by choice or through circumstances, went to a restaurant here, held a dinner party, and proclaimed June 4 as Old Maid's day. They hope the get-together will spread the idea of an annual Old Maid's day throughout the nation.

"Why not a day for old maids?" said Marian Richards, 54, who originated the thought one year ago in the Norristown factory where she and the other girls work.

"There's a Mother's day and a Father's day and so on."

Miss Richards thinks national honoring of spinsters would halt the flow of jokes and jibes and make the women feel they are appreciated.

The spinsters, ranging from 77 down to 30, where, there's still hope, were joined at the party by 21 other workers, either married or who consider themselves still eligible for a trip to the altar.

The party was a Dutch-treat affair with everybody footing their own $2.70 bill. There was no liquor and plenty of good, clean fun, including the singing of such ditties as "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

China Faucet Handles

The hazards of china faucet and valve handles are stressed by the Plumbing and Heating Industries bureau. China handles are likely to break and cut the hand or arm of the user. The replacement of all china handles with metal handles is advocated by the bureau.

Fourth of July

The fourth of July was first celebrated in 1793—23 years after the Declaration of Independence.

New Milk Canning Process

Milk will pass through stainless steel tubing and equipment without ever contacting air in a new process being developed for canning fresh milk.

Tires

75,000 Miles Goal

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—Motor car tires good for 75,000 miles may be expected on the market before long, Dr. Charles P. Fryling of the Phillips petroleum company has reported.

Addressing the Northeastern section of the American Chemical Society at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Dr. Phillips said that further improvement in a new synthetic known as "cold rubber" would make the long-lived tires possible. He asserted that a production capacity of 200,000 tons of cold rubber would be available by the end of this year, enabling synthetic rubber to compete on favorable terms with the natural product.

In addition to making possible better rubber, Dr. Fryling said, the new process has reduced the cost of the synthetic product, since faster reactions with reduced overhead costs were now possible, and that fewer raw materials need be used.

Hero

Bests Sergeant York

HONG KONG.—The Chinese Communist radio has come up with a Sergeant York tale that goes the Tennessee sharpshooter one better.

It is said that a lone communist guerrilla, Chiu Yin-shan, armed only with a shoe, had captured 40 Nationalist soldiers while he was walking down a highway in Kiangsi province.

Chiu met seven Nationalists, the broadcast said, and having exhausted his supply of hand grenades, he pulled off his shoe, brandished it and shouted, "Hand over your arms or you die." Thereupon, according to the broadcast, the soldiers flung down their arms. Soon, 42 more soldiers appeared and surrendered when Chiu fired two shots from the captured rifles, the radio reported.

Use of Television In Religious Work Being Recognized

NEW YORK.—That television will become increasingly important as a religious, as well as a cultural and entertainment vehicle, seems assured.

The possibilities of television have been recognized by religious leaders from the beginning, and church groups more and more are discussing ways of utilizing the new medium described by one spokesman as "essential to the work of the Christian church today."

Television programs of religious interest already have become familiar to video audiences.

Latest innovation is a religious news program, first of its kind, recently launched by station WRGB in Schenectady.

Known as "Through the Eyes of Religion," the new program consists of news analyses, talks, photo illustrations, and live shots. The program is now on a 10-minute spot every two weeks, but is expected shortly to be presented on a weekly basis.

Until now, the most impressive use of television has been in the presentation of significant church ceremonies.

God Fish Experiment Seen Aid to Far North Explorers

DETROIT.—Future Arctic and Arctic expeditions may benefit from experiments in which cod fish will get heat stroke.

The fish are Arctic cod which thrive in the icy waters of the far north. They are going to be dropped, by Dr. John Field of Stanford university, into waters comparable in temperature to those of the Pacific, ocean off the California coast.

Human swimmers may shiver in these waters on a July day, but to the cod they are hot water. Although he expects the cod to die, Dr. Field has reason to believe they might survive if they could be adapted to the higher water temperatures by slow degrees. He will try this in later experiments.

Dr. Field's experiments are being carried on at Point Barrow, Alaska, under a contract with the U. S. office of naval research which is interested in the mechanisms by which animals and fish adapt themselves to extremes of heat and cold. He reported some of them at a meeting here of the federation of American societies for experimental biology.

Arctic cod, he found, can live in waters as cold as three degrees below freezing because their metabolism, or rate of bodily chemical reaction, hold up well at low temperature.

SHORT STORY

Mr. Diggles On Duty

By MARY WHITEFORD

MR. DIGGLES kept his head down as though he were studying the prescription, scarcely hearing Mrs. Tompkins' voice through the noise of blood thudding in his temples. When he tried to speak, his lips were dry and his tongue moved nervously over them. "I beg your pardon, Mrs. Tompkins, what was that you said?"

"I said if you haven't a delivery boy I'll wait for the three o'clock bus, but I'm anxious to get back as soon as I can."

He looked again at Dr. Price's cramped handwriting. "Oh, I'll deliver it, Mrs. Tompkins. I'm sorry to leave Mr. Tompkins isn't well."

"I told him it's just his bad disposition coming out. I told Dr. Price I certainly hated to drag him out in weather like this just for a stomach ache. Doctor says he'll be all right in a day or two."

Mr. Diggles took the handkerchief from the pocket of his grey alpaca coat and wiped his forehead. The moment he used to dream of years ago, was here at last. This would cost Dr. Price his practice.

The pity was, Dr. Price would never know he could have saved himself, if he hadn't made it so clear that a man who mixed prescriptions wasn't supposed to know about diagnosis. Dr. Price would never know what he'd done to himself when he told Mrs. White she might as well give the twins a chocolate soda as Diggles' Own Whooping Cough Mixture. Because of Dr. Price's new ways of doing things, no one bought Diggles' Ready Rheumatism Reliever now. Shots, it was, the doctor was giving for everything. Not prescriptions.

Manslaughter, they called it. He wet his lips. Well, no one could expect Mr. Diggles to interfere with Dr. Price's prescriptions again. Not a second time.

Though it was so many years ago, he could feel the flush of anger that flooded his face remembering the day he'd called Dr. Price up, and suggested that maybe the heart medicine he ordered for Mr. Venables was too strong.

"I know what I'm doing. Just mind your own business, Diggles, and I can mind mine."

He looked again at the prescription. There was no mistaking the symbol and he'd fill it as it stood. He reached for the bottle and removed the cork. Carefully, he measured out the prescribed dose.

MR. DIGGLES straightened suddenly, staring at the partly filled mortar. A feeling of nausea swept through him as he snatched it up and flung the contents into the sink. His hand, replacing the bottle on the shelf, trembled. Outside, the wind howled and flakes of ice made a cold noise beating the window pane.

Dr. Price sat down and mopped his forehead.

Slowly, he walked toward the telephone. After all, just as many people swore by Dr. Price as trusted Diggles.

As he waited, listening to Dr. Price's telephone bell ringing, the shop door opened. Mr. Diggles put down the receiver and went to the front. Dr. Price was on the mat, stamping the snow from his feet.

"Diggles, will you let me see the prescription Mrs. Tompkins just brought in?"

"I was just trying to call you about it, Dr. Price. I felt there was some little inaccuracy."

Dr. Price nodded. "Something told me. But I wasn't really worried. I knew you'd catch a mistake if there was one. It's a great comfort to me to know that a substantial man like you is checking up on me, Diggles."

"I have to do what I can. A man has to do his duty. He smiled and stood up."

"That's right, doctor. I guess duty becomes a habit if you do it long enough." The wind screamed into the shop as Dr. Price opened the door and went out. It was a bleak, bitter day, but in Mr. Diggles' heart it was suddenly summer.

BRITAIN WORRIED

'Rock' Apes Grow Fewer

NEW YORK.—With fewer than 20 of the famous Barbary apes still left on the Rock of Gibraltar, Great Britain, ever conscious of the legend that "when the apes go, the British go, too," again is taking steps to "reinforce" the unique garrison at the gateway to the Mediterranean Sea.

Gibraltar's apes, the only simian species living wild in all Europe, have roamed the castles-covered upper reaches of the 1,350-foot Rock for centuries, notes the National Geographic Society. Numbering 100 or more in the 18th century, they have dwindled alarmingly close to the disappearing point several times since. On each occasion a new batch of "recruits" replenished the colony.

Apes Rounded Up
As a focal nerve center in the war—General Eisenhower directed the invasion of North Africa from "Gib"—and a citadel bristling with military activity, the Rock no longer could risk the danger of roving apes possibly causing wild confusion and serious damage. Accordingly, they were rounded up and placed in captivity for the duration. Most of those at large today are replacements brought from Africa after the end of hostilities.

The powerful tailless creatures, the size of big albatrosses, are not really apes. They are macaques, native to the forests of Barbary south across the strait in north-west Africa.

Scientists believe they first came to Europe in prehistoric times when the Mediterranean was a lake and the Strait of Gibraltar was dry land. The modern explanation is that pet macaques brought from Barbary frequently escaped or were freed from bondage by humans and found hospitality and sustenance in the labyrinthine and vegetation of the Rock.

Even a few dozen Barbary apes running wild could make Gibraltar seem infested, so constant were their acts of mischief at times. Many are the stories of their destructive or playful descents, always by daylight, on shops, dwellings and barracks, as well as on civilian and military inhabitants of the community.

Officially Protected
In a noble experiment, the British gave the Gibraltar apes official protection in 1856. They were added to the 'son strength, given limited food rations and placed under a sergeant, "Keeper of the Apes." On one occasion they rewarded their benefactors by noisy warnings of an attempted surprise attack by a Spanish force.

In general, however, they took advantage of their immunity by acts of thievery and damage to property and human dignity. The worst offenders were arrested and sometimes exiled to distant zoos. After 1880, their liberty was curtailed.

The leader of one band, caught stealing kits from the garrison, had his head and face shaved closely. His gang would have none of so bare-faced a scoundrel, and greeted him with a shower of sticks and stones. Whereupon he returned to take up humble quarters with the soldiers who had punished him.

Auto Easy to Purchase in Prague for $8,000

PRAGUE.—If you want to buy a car for $8,000, it can be done easily here.

Just walk into any outlet for the nationalized automobile industry in Czechoslovakia and you can get a Skoda 1101 tudor sedan for a mere 415,850.80 crowns ($8,317.10).

If you have a ration permit, it will set you back only half that, 203,505.40 crowns, but you will have to prove very specifically that you have some really valid reason for needing a car.

On the free market you needn't prove anything except that you have the money. (Four hundred thousand crowns represents about 80 months of the average worker's pay, or about 10 months of the average top managerial salary in this country today.)

The Skoda 1101 is a small car, considerably smaller than the 1933 Chevrolet but a little larger than the German Volkswagen.

Television Service

Most rural sections of the country will get television service within the next five to seven years and perhaps sooner through satellite television stations, college agricultural editors were told at a recent meeting at Cornell University.

Halley's Comet

Halley's comet, which put on such a brilliant show in the heavens in 1910, will again be visible to the naked eye on a return visit in 1986. It had a tail about eighteen million miles long when it swept near the earth in 1910.

Carotene

The yellow fat of cattle that are fed on grass is due to carotene.

Egg Eaters

Not all peoples insist upon absolutely fresh eggs. Some Borneo natives prefer those about ready to hatch. Eskimos gather duck eggs in the Arctic each spring, eat their fill, and then bury the rest for future reference. In China duck eggs, pickled in brine mixed with a red, oily clay, are popular.

Casters for Bed

If a bed must stand in a corner or alcove, it should be equipped with good ball-bearing casters so that it can be rolled out for making or for cleaning the room.

Curious Cemetery Custom

One of the curious cemetery customs in parts of North Carolina is the decoration of graves with burned-out electric light bulbs.

Sitka Spruce

A great majority of the sounding boards used by larger piano makers are made from Sitka spruce which grows extensively in the coast region of Oregon and Washington. These sounding boards must be perfectly matched for uniform grain to assure perfect resonant quality.

No. 1 Fire Cause

Approximately one-third of all fires in the United States are caused by the careless handling of cigarettes and matches, which is the nation's number one fire hazard.

Structural Lumber

The principal factors which must be limited in structural grades of lumber are: knots, shakes, checks and slope of grain.

How old is an aged steak? You can get a lot of answers to this, but the American Meat Institute says, "Beef is correctly aged in 10 days to 3 months by temperature and humidity control. ## "Buick's the Buy"

It's part of every street scene—something you see every day.

Car owners in three different price classes—all happy about the same thing.

One of them drives a new Buick SPECIAL, which you see poking forth its new, bold-look forefront at the left of our picture.

Another will tell you there's nothing like the SUPER's "happy medium" of size and comfort, power and easy handling, style and standing.

And if you're looking for prestige, where is your money going to buy so much as in that handsome 18-footer, the ROADMASTER, with its 150-hp performance and really royal bearing?

But all these good folks get together on this:

There's no ride quite so soft and cushiony as the Buick ride, whatever the size and series. There's no power quite so satisfyingly lively as Buick's high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power.

Above all, there's no "buy" like a Buick—no car that gives you such a rich dollar's worth of smartness, handling, comfort and liveliness for every dollar you pay.

So why not look the whole line over? Your Buick dealer has these grand travel-mates in a baker's dozen of different body types and sizes. Start your shopping in his showroom—and you'll find that even on delivery he has exactly what you want.

BUICK alone has all these features

Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area • SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access • "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRUFLUX COIL SPRINGING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS (Dynaflo Models) plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • Double-Duty VENTIPORTS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods • BODY BY FISHER

Miss Katherine Sackerson Of Indian Point Tells Of Recent Trip to Norway

Miss Katherine Sackerson, of Indian Point, has written an account of her recent trip to Norway and her impressions and observations abroad.

A portion of the letter is presented this week and will be continued in succeeding issues.

"The S. S. 'Stavangerfjord' left New York Harbor at 1 p. m. July 25th, 1947, and I left with it, including 815 more passengers.

"It was very exciting and yet a strange feeling went over me as I thought of everyone I was leaving behind to be gone, what to me seemed, a long time; all told it was only 4½ months.

"Fifteen minutes later the gong rang and we were summoned to the dining room. The first gong meant we were to clean up. The second rang out a half hour later. What a table, typical Norwegian, with lots of good food.

"Every morning for breakfast they had a smorgasbord which had everything on it. Many kinds of jellies and marmalades; cold cuts; pickled herring, of course; many kinds of cheese including rikkeost and yelldost; hard tack, thin bread and fancy crackers. That was the first course. Next we had a choice of oatmeal or post toasties, bacon and eggs, oranges, boiled eggs, coffee, milk or tea. Tea was best if one was unseaworthy. Service was formal.

"In Norway they serve milk for breakfast, although it was quite scarce. On board we wondered why they put glasses on the table and no water. There was always a large pitcher of milk, so about the fourth morning one of the men at my table said 'Well if they do not give us water let us use the milk,' which we did. Later we found that was what we should have done all the time.

"The weather was delightful all the way over, and I took some pictures as evidence. Very few people were sick; but those that were must have been the type that would get sick in a bathtub. Half way over we had a full moon, and at 1:00 a. m. I saw the moon on one side and the sun on the horizon on the other. The orchestra played for one hour in the morning, and one hour in the late afternoon, then for the dancing in the evening. People were saying there should be more music in-between, so I tried to entertain once in a while. Also sang with the orchestra to give them a change, in the evening.

The sixth night out was the Captain's dinner which was a gala affair and we all wore formal, and stayed up later than usual.

"A week later, Aug. 2, we arrived at Bergen where many went ashore including myself as we were going to be docked for four hours. Some relatives came down to see me, and we went to the Norge hotel to have some refreshments and dance. It was quite a swanky place, and I was very much impressed with my first glance of Norway. By the way, I never lost it. Bergen is a very large town as well as a beautiful one. At 6 a. m. we were at Stavanger where more people disembarked. It was interesting to see the buildings along the dock with the name Bjellands on them, because seen that name on cans of fishballs, but had no idea the industry was so large.

as long as I can remember I have (To Be Continued)

British Agriculture
British agriculture is one of the most highly mechanized in the world. Britain has one tractor to every 67 acres of arable land, the United States one to every 130, and Canada one to every 200. As in the United States, there is an average of more than one tractor to every two farmers.

Monel, an alloy of approximately 2/3 nickel and 1/3 copper, has become one of the best corrosion-resistant metals to be used in the roofing industry today.

Arctic Travel

Experts on Arctic travel say that the successful explorer should be equal to walking as far in a day as his dogs can pull the sledge and camp equipment. Even when rations are short for both man and animal, the practical advice is not to skimp on food for the dog team, since weakness in the dogs will only result in slowing all in progress of the expedition toward the safety of a settlement.

Brushes Made of Reeds

The introduction of liquid paints in ancient Egypt brought the need for brushes. In the British museum today there are specimens of tools used by the Egyptian craftsmen, including three brushes which seem to have been made of reeds or the fibrous stems of palm leaves. These reeds, according to historians, were soaked in water and split into minute fragments which formed a brush more or less fine.

Unrinsed Soap

Soap that is not rinsed out of clothes during the laundering may show up in a brownish stain resembling iron rust when the clothes are ironed.

X-Disease

A survey conducted by a special committee of the American Veterinary Medical association disclosed that at least 30 states sustained cattle losses from X disease in 1948.

Canned Oranges

For every dozen oranges that moved to market in their own skins last season, about seven other oranges went to consumers in tin cans or bottles.
